Marketable Skills Achievement Award, Web Designer

The Marketable Skills Achievement Award is a sequence of courses that allows students to obtain high in-demand skills or improve their current skills.

Graduates of this program are prepared for entry-level employment as Web Designers and Digital Media Specialists. Employment in these and related positions are in demand across most industries.

Digital media training requires strong emphasis on the use of software, tools, and technology. This program conducts training using cutting-edge skills and technologies employers need, including: Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, Dreamweaver and Flash.

Marketable Skills Achievement Awards are embedded into A.A.S and/or Certificate program plans. Upon completion of the series of courses, contact your Workforce faculty Program Coordinator to ensure that your award is included on your transcript and receive advising regarding the benefits of continued training to pursue the Certificate or A.A.S.
